

ISAIAH: THE MESSAGE OF HOPE

Lesson 1 - A Prophetic Voice

INTRODUCTION

How do you define “greatness”?

A GREAT CHARACTER’S SUMMARY

He was the son of “_____” (1:1)

He was married and had _____ children.

His wife was known as the “_____” (8:3) and his two sons were named as object lessons for predictive prophecies (7:3; 8:3).

It is often suggested that Isaiah was a member of _____.

A GREAT CHARACTER’S SPECIFICS

1. An unquestioning _____ in the Almighty God. (7:1-12)
2. An unruffled CALM _____ in God’s promises. (7:4).
3. An intense _____ at man’s cynicism and folly. (8:11-12; 28:17-18; 39:5-7).
4. An utter _____ of worldly power to deliver. (9:4-5; 14:5, 11; 2:22; 33:22; 30:1-2; 30:5, 7).
5. An amazing _____ to commit to God’s will.
6. An inspired _____ of Jehovah God.
7. An uncompromising _____ for God. (31:4; 5:1-7; 22:4).

CONCLUSION

Isaiah’s _____ makes him a “great” man!

The prophet did not place his trust upon the uncertainties of worldly treasures and worldly pride. Isaiah set his hope upon the Lord God Almighty and laid a foundation for genuine “greatness.” When your heart needs hope then remember the greatness of Isaiah the prophet! If you want to find true greatness then study Isaiah’s prophecy and follow Inspiration’s counsel.