

ISAIAH: THE MESSAGE OF HOPE

Lesson 5 - The Servant Brings Hope

John L. Kachelman, Jr

Dalraida Church of Christ, Montgomery, AL

INTRODUCTION

- Yet the prophet appeared with a message that seemed _____.
- The coming Servant was just _____ person but He would dramatically change the world. If “one” cannot make a difference then the prophetic announcement that one “Servant” was coming and bringing peace and joy seems to be a questionable hope.

THE SERVANT INTRODUCED

The coming of this Messianic Servant would present everything with a “new” perspective. Look carefully at Isaiah 42:1-13 and observe the incredible details that introduce this majestic Servant that would come to earth and offer God’s gracious salvation.

A NEW SHIFT IN _____ - “BEHOLD!” (ISAIAH 42:1).

A NEW PERSON IN ACTION - “MY SERVANT” (ISAIAH 42:1).

This title affirmed the following critical facts about this Person.

1. Affirms He shared a SPECIAL _____ with God - “My SERVANT.”
2. Affirms He was God’s UNIQUE _____ - “MY Servant.”
3. Affirms He possessed God’s DIVINE _____ - “MY SPIRIT.”

A NEW ORDER IN COVENANT - “HIS LAW” (ISAIAH 42:4).

- A new energy will empower them with God’s _____ (Isaiah 42:5).
- A new _____ will emerge (Isaiah 42:6a).
- A new _____ will be established (Isaiah 42:6b-7).
- A _____ of new things will occur (Isaiah 42:8-9)
- A new _____ will be heard (Isaiah 42:10-13)

THE SERVANT REFINED

- The revelation of Christ as this incredible “Servant” was not given all at once. God’s revelation came _____ (28:9-13).
- Inspiration utilized four “songs” that build upon one another so we are able to understand the role of this Servant. When these songs are combined one stands _____ at the Sovereign’s scheme of redemption!